At the meeting this morning with Donna Oliver, Susie Doty from B&C, Dr. Beers, and General Redden it was determined that further negotiations would be conducted with 3 of the four vendors evaluated: Apple, Dell and IBM. Susie Doty will review our justification for this recommendation prior to release to the vendors to make sure that it is legally sound (it will be). All vendors will receive notification of their status the first week in January, 2005. Donna, Susie and I will meet the first week of January to plan the strategy for final negotiations.

I am very happy that Susie will be involved in this final phase to assure that we follow the letter of the law.
